

Hazard Communication Test - Answer Guide

Question 1

Match the requirement with the person or organization that the HazCom standard requires it be performed by. (Draw a line from the item on the left, to its matching item on the right.)

1: Chemical manufacturer
A: Determine hazards of chemical products

---

2: Employer
B: Identify and list all chemicals in workplace

Question 2

Hazardous chemicals at a workplace can cause which of the following? (Select all that apply.)

- A. Heart damage
- B. Cancer
- C. Burns and rashes
- D. Fires and explosions

Question 3

Which of the following statements about chemical labels are true?

- A. Chemical labels are not necessary
- B. All chemical labels include the same information
- C. All chemical labels display information in the same way
- D. All chemical labels used in workplaces should meet OSHA's requirements

Question 4

Which of the following is NOT something the written hazard communication program should always create provisions for?

- A. Purchasing chemicals
- B. Labeling hazardous chemicals
- C. When to enter a confined space
- D. Training employees to use hazardous chemicals at the workplace safely

Question 5

According to the two chemical labels on this screen, which chemical poses a greater fire risk?

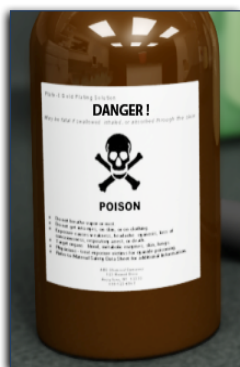

Answer:

A

Question 6

Which of the following statements about this chemical are correct? (Select all that apply.)

- A. The chemical presents a high degree of hazard
- B. The chemical presents a moderate degree of hazard
- C. The chemical presents a low degree of hazard
- D. The chemical is toxic

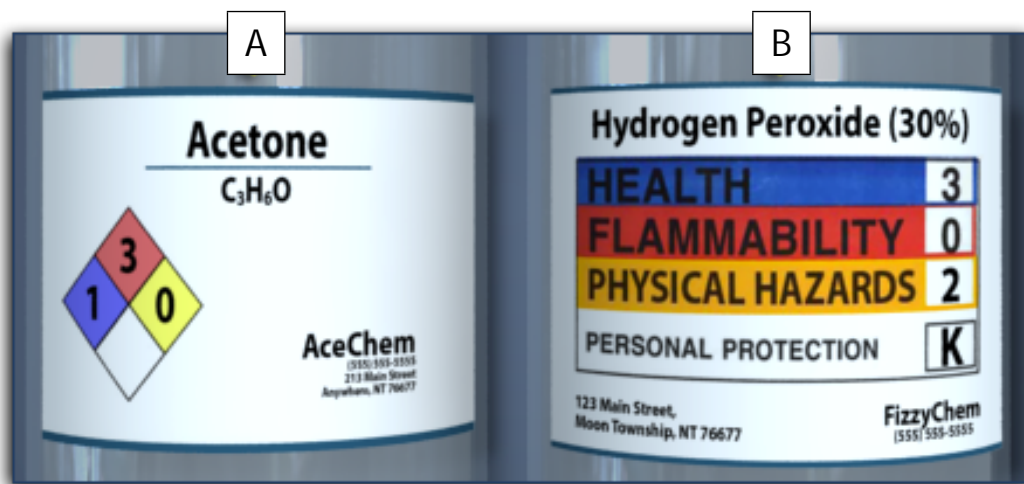

Question 7

OSHA's HazCom Standard requires employers with hazardous chemicals onsite do which of the following? (Select all that apply).

- A. Develop a written hazard communication program
- B. Remove all hazardous chemicals from the workplace
- C. Identify and list all hazardous chemicals in the workplace
- D. Put the hazard communication program into action at the workplace

Question 8

According to the two chemical labels on this screen, which chemical poses a greater health risk?

Answer:

B

Question 9

OSHA's HazCom Standard requires chemical manufacturers, importers, and distributors to do which of the following? (Select all that apply.)

- A. Determine the hazards of their chemical products
- B. Provide MSDSs for their hazardous chemical products
- C. Engineer their chemical products so they are not hazardous
- D. Place chemical labels on their hazardous chemical products

Question 10

OSHA's HazCom Standard requires that all chemical labels include which of the following? (Select all that apply.)

- A. The name of the chemical
- B. Appropriate hazard warnings about the chemical
- C. The name and address of the chemical manufacturer
- D. The telephone number of the local poison control center nearest the workplace where the chemical will be used

Question 11

As part of the mandatory HazCom training an employer must give each employee, the employer must list any operations in the employee's work area where _____ are present.

- A. MSDSs
- B. Computers
- C. Break rooms
- D. Hazardous chemicals

Question 12

What is the most reliable, complete source of information about a hazardous chemical?

- A. The Internet
- B. Your employer
- C. The chemical's label
- D. An MSDS for the chemical

Question 13

Employees do not have the right to view a MSDS for a chemical at the workplace.

- True
- False