

First Aid for Common Injuries Test - Answer Guide

Question 1

Symptoms of a serious concussion that require calling 9-1-1 include loss of consciousness, long-term confusion, and unequal pupil sizes.

- A. True
- B. False

Question 2

If a chemical splashes into a person's eyeball, flush the eyeball under water for at least:

- A. 1 minute
- B. 5 minutes
- C. 10 minutes
- D. 20 minutes

Question 3

Burn victims with charred skin that's black, brown, or even white and dry should always receive emergency medical care, even if they feel little or no pain.

- A. True
- B. False

Question 4

Which one of the following statements about broken bones and dislocations is not true?

- A. You should call 9-1-1 if the bone has pierced the skin.
- B. You should splint the area if possible and have victim not move the area.
- C. You should not attempt to put a dislocated bone or joint back into position.
- D. When placing a cravat around the chest of a person with a broken rib, you should tie it very tightly.

Question 5

Which of the following is not something a person suffering from a corneal abrasion (a scratched eyeball) should do?

- A. Blink
- B. Rub the eyeball
- C. Rinse the eye with clean water or saline

Question 6

Which of the following is the best thing to do if a coworker is suffering from an electrical burn?

- A. Rush in as quickly as possible in order to reduce the severity of the victim's burns
- B. Make sure the scene is safe before you enter and risk your own health

Question 7

Which of the following should you avoid doing if you suspect a person has broken a bone?

- A. Splint the area to avoid movement
- B. Place ice packs on the injured area
- C. Stop any bleeding by applying direct pressure
- D. Move the bone or joint around to see if it's broken

Question 8

Spider bites never require medical treatment.

- A. True
- B. False

Question 9

Which of the following can cause a burn? (Select any of the following that apply.)

- A. The sun
- B. Electricity
- C. Chemicals
- D. Thermal energy or heat

Question 10

Which of the following statements about bites and stings are true? (Select any of the following that apply.)

- A. Human bites that break the skin pose little or no serious health concerns
- B. You should use a knife to cut an X-shape over a snake wound and suck out the poison.
- C. If possible, you should try to positively identify, but not capture, the snake that bit a person.
- D. If a person bitten by a spider develops a blister filled with fluid, you should get them to medical attention

Question 11

Select each spider or snake below that is poisonous. (Select all that apply.)

- A. Brown Recluse
- B. Black Widow
- C. Rattle Snake
- D. Coral Snake